Machines with combustable engines stopped at once.

Whatever it was also froze nuclear reactors and all forms of industrial factories. Thus, the civilization as we know was destroyed swiftly.

But the bigger change mankind noticed quickly was ...

Their weapons.

All of a sudden, their weapons have become virtually useless at once.

Will true peace finally arrive then ?

An era without fire ...

Mankind was forced to accept and live in an era there was no fire of any kind.

10 years later

Surely, you jest ?! Do you really mean to entrust such an important task to someone like him ? He's a loose cannon !

Who else would even bother rampaging through lawless cities ? The authority has become powerless since weapons became useless.

But he won't likely listen to us now.

You need to understond us.

At that time, we had no way of stopping outlaws from overthrowing us.

Body enhancement was the only way.

Look how much you've assisted us retaining the order.

And we have no way of knowing that the chemicals used in the experiments would shorten lifespon to mere 2 years if it come in contact with the anti-fire matters.

However, you are an exception. You've lived 5 years now.

SO WHAT ?! I HAVE LIKE A WEEK TO LIVE !

I couldn't sleep with women because, whenever I get excited, my heart would act in a very unstable manner !

You treated me like a piece of shit and now you want ta kill me ?!

Fine, so be it. I am going ta die today but I am going down with you.

The antidate is in the capsule.

Bring us the woman and we will give you its key.

Do not waste your energy. It is made of reinforced steel.

Just who is she ?! Why are you going this far to bring her here ?!

We've been sending you on missions to rescue fragile women.

But this mission is different. Very different
